Completely quiet and secure. Through the door is the extended long deck to the front door and the back patio.

This is the adjacent lot where you can build your new home and use this home as an income producing property or enjoy the wildlife!

Trex decking and a great perch to enjoy the local views.

So cozy and inviting....studio is free standing.

Com on in!

Love the tongue and groove ceiling. Oversized stone top countertop system and check out the cabinetry. Can you see the outdoor cooking station through the sliding glass door? Propane fireplace as well as the ductless heating system.

This home has been completely furnished with nothing left out and mostly new. Turn key has a new level to reach!

Extremely well designed and no shortcuts....

You walk in to a large closet and bath, down the hall, as you saw, the living area but when you slip over to the left to the hall, you have your utility area and bedroom across from this and behind me is a floor level access to the family room which is actually a functioning garage.

How many garages are this nice! fully insulated as is the home and the garage door is insulated and sealed. Electric fireplace also stays. (the carpet has been replaced of equal size.)

This is the garage door to the left, standing outside, the second door goes through the door in the corner for storage and behind the couches, that is the bedroom wall.
